

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Road to Guangdong | Free Official Soundtrack Sample

Banbury, Oxfordshire – 23rd May 2019

Road to Guangdong, the upcoming story-based driving and repairing simulation game set to release on 6 June, features a thematic and thoughtful soundtrack. Composer Chris Randle (LA Cops, Volume) has crafted a score that encompasses both lead characters Sunny and Guu Ma, as well as their sprawling road trip across China.

With all music in-game playing via the car radio, the authentic soundtrack represents both Sunny and Guu Ma's taste in music, and hints at their clashing personalities. As of today, two tracks from Road to Guangdong's original score are available to download completely free. Click here to download the tracks.

About Road to Guangdong

Join Sunny and Guu Ma on the journey of a life time, as they travel across China in their aging but beloved family car. Can they maintain their beloved car and overcome their personal history to save the family restaurant?

Drive across China in the beloved but weathered family car, 'Sandy'. Take care of your tyres, fuel consumption and engine condition as you navigate the beautiful province of Guangdong. An epic journey in such an old car isn't going to be easy – be prepared to take a look under the hood. Add oil, manage petrol, maintain the engine and build a stock of useful parts to avoid calling out the mechanic.

Play as Sunny, a 23-year-old art graduate, as she joins 68-year-old aunt Guu Ma on a road trip to rekindle her family restaurant. Unexpectedly inheriting her family's restaurant, Sunny is tasked with reigniting relationships, and establishing her place in the family, on her quest to secure and recreate secret recipes.

Navigate narrative puzzles and moral choices as you select dialogue and shape Sunny's character. Sunny and Guu Ma's relationship will be tested and evolve throughout a road trip that will change both of their lives.

The game is filled with visual charm and personality, combining bold colours with a low poly art style. The visuals are underscored by a score that evokes the '90s setting, and explores the tensions that exist between tradition and modernisation – themes which are at the heart of Sunny and Guu Ma's story.
